Arrived from Galveston.
Olin Nicholson arrived last night from Galveston to remain here. His family came here several days ago.

Meeting Postponed.
On account of the death of Olin Harris the Women's Mission Society of the West Greenville Baptist church will not meet today.

Returned from Ladonia.
Harry Childers returned yesterday from Ladonia, where he spent several days. Mr. Childers says there is a strong sentiment at Ladonia for C. J. Johnson for governor.

Returned from Ennis.
Mrs. J. P. Reed, of Mr. Pleasant and Little Francis Harrison have returned from a visit in Ennis. Mrs. Reed will visit several days with her sister, Mrs. E. W. Harrison.

Home from Marshall.
J. J. Atteberry returned yesterday afternoon from Marshall where he visited a month with his son, Prof. W. H. Atteberry and family. Yesterday he returned to his home at Celeste.

Suit Filed.
A suit was filed in the office of the district clerk of the Farmers National Bank of Lone Oak vs. R. M. Pad dock, for debt and foreclosure. Loomis & Clark attorneys for plaintiff.

Operated Upon Yesterday.
Miss Beulah McAdams was operated upon yesterday in a local hospital and is recovering nicely. It is expected that she will completely recover soon, which will please her many friends here.

Invited to Banquet.
Dr. C. E. Cantrell has received an invitation to attend a banquet to be given by the citizens of Baltimore complimentary to their foremost physician and surgeon, Dr. Wm. H. Special Associate Justice.
Judge Lee Clark will leave for Dallas tomorrow to act as one of the Special Associate Justices of the Court of Civil Appeals, Fifth District, to try several appealed cases growing out of the failure of the Western Bank and Trust Company, of Dallas, the members of the court being disqualified in these cases. The special justices have been appointed by Governor Campbell. Judge Clark being selected to act for Justice Bookout. The appointment by the Governor of Judge Clark is a recognition of that gentleman's splendid ability as a lawyer and his qualification as a judge. The litigation involves large interests and no doubt intricate propositions of law will have to be considered.

Try This.
B. S. Chandler's bargains have such worth. They're known to many over the earth. They're great and to many a necessity. And in every home, some of these bargains should be. If other places you've tried in vain come to B. S. Chandler's and be happy again.

W. B. Patton Coming.
W. B. Patton, known as the "peculiar comedian" will appear at the King next Thursday in his new play "The Blockhead." The unique part of "Professor Theodore Blockhead Heddlington" affords the popular comedian a first-class opportunity to display his ability as a laughmaker. Unlike many stars, Patton does not believe in occupying entirely the center of the stage and so in "The Blockhead" his company has an equal chance with himself to win favor. All of the characters in the play are good and many of them new to the stage. An excellent cast has been engaged, beautiful scenery and effects are carried and taken as a whole, it is an excellent presentation, entirely out of the ordinary, its sentiment and tone of the highest.
